Davis-White Feud Boils In South Bay

A controversial trial will be heard in South Bay municipal court May 24 when former South Bay police officer, Andrew J. (Jack) White appears before Mayor-judge F. W. Kelley, Jr. on charges of interferring with a police officer in the performance of his duty and resisting arrest.

The charges arose from incidents May 9 when White disputed the right of Police Chief Marvin Davis to carry out an investigation in front of White's place of business.

Davis was in the process of questioning M. B. Merrell, South Bay negro, about the latter's drivers license. Davis ordered White not to interfere; however, White continued. When Davis told White he was under arrest, White returned to the office of his gas station and approached Davis with a tire tool.

White's brother Carlton broke up the scuffle and told Davis that his brother would answer charges properly; however, White did not go to the police station as Davis ordered.

Chief Davis then notified Constable W. L. Lee who apprehended White and took him to the South Bay Police Station where he was charged and his bond set at $100.

Mayor Kelley called Davis to ask if he had apprehended White. Davis affirmed that he did whereupon Kelley ordered White set free without bond. Kelley threatened to suspend Davis for two weeks if he did not comply with his wishes, Davis said.

JOB and WORKER

J. W. Mosley, Jr., Representative Florida State Employment Service

Swan Song . . . The 1957 spring bean season is over to all intents and purposes. Rains for the past several days have cut the length of the season by about two weeks. After twenty years in the Glades, I continue to be amazed at the finality with which every season ends. One day everyone is busy with the bean harvest. The next day the harvest is over and the great out-migration of harvest workers to eastern seaboard states gets underway. The friendships and ties of the eight months bean season are broken and everyone goes his separate way. We know from past experience, however, that October will see the friendships renewed and the harvest begin when the thousands of workers return from their northern jaunt.

J. W. Mosley, Jr.

Back Scratcher . . . Although there is a tendency, and sometimes with good reason, to blame government bureaus and bureaucracy in general for many of our aches and pains, the farm labor program sponsored by the Bureau of Employment Security certainly does make good sense and does make good business. Perhaps the fact that the growers, the workers, and the farm labor men cooperate enthusiastically is the real key to the success of such a desirable program. I would like to take this opportunity to

C Of C Plans Its Membership Drive

"The remarkable growth of our great state during the past few years is due in large part to the work of local Chambers of Commerce," Governor Collins has stated, and for this reason, he had proclaimed the week of May 19-25 "Florida Chamber of Commerce Week."

The Board of Directors of the Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce has set May 23-24 to visit local firms to acquaint them with the work of the chamber and to invite their participation in the program of the chamber according to Bill Graber, chairman of the membership committee of the local chamber.

In a letter to local firms, Graber outlined a few of the many phases of work the chamber has been actively engaged in during the past few months.

Graber said that firms would be invited to take an active part in the future of Belle Glade through membership in the chamber.

Listed in the letter were the following items: The boat-a-cade which brought over 300 boats and 700 people to this city, the second annual Christmas fiesta parade, 10th annual Glades-grown dinner attended by over 200, spring sales festival which gave away $625, boat basin and launching ramp completed with immediate plans for landscaping the site, two hot industrial prospects for this city, television coverage of major events in the city by WPTV, plus the fact that hundreds of letters are sent out monthly by the office to persons interested in this city.

It was also announced this week that Mrs. Edwina C. Young, executive secretary here, was re-elected a director of the Florida Chambers of Commerce Executives at Tampa May 9-12.

THE BUZZ SAW!

Highest Damage Action Given Mrs. Dora Danley In Circuit Court May 15

A jury in Circuit Court in West Palm Beach awarded a Belle Glade widow a record $71,000 verdict this week in the death of her husband in a 1955 grade crossing crash at the Florida East Coast Railway crossing on Airport Road.

Courthouse officials said the $71,000 was the highest ever made at West Palm Beach in a case involving the injury or death of an individual and probably a record in any damage action.

The award was returned in favor of Dora L. Danley in an action against John E. Martin, trustee of the F. E. C.

V. I. Danley was fatally injured in a collision at the Avenue L. crossing November 20, 1955. The trial took place May 13-14-15 before the jury returned the verdict Wednesday.

Attorneys for Mrs. Danley were Robert E. (Bobby) Mathews, Belle Glade, and Adams, Phillips and Hathaway, West Palm Beach.

Sewerage Referendum Off
Fiscal Agent Omits $49,000
City Must Fix New Rates

City Manager Clarence Robinson informed The Herald late Friday night, May 10, that as far as he could see now the sewerage referendum would not be held May 21 as reported last week.

Two reasons were given for the postponement: 1. The fiscal agent, E. C. Hodge, representing B. J. Van Ingen, had forgotten to include the sum of $49,000 for operating costs when he figured the anticipated annual expenditures of the city in repaying the bond issue. 2. The complete rate structure has not been figured in order that it can be explained to the public.

Robinson said he would be in Daytona Beach on the first of next week to compare rate figures with Russell and Axon, the city's engineers. They will at that time, Robinson said, come up with a detailed set of rates.

Robinson would not commit himself as to whether the $5 room unit charge would be increased, but he did infer that it would not.

Three sources of income must be set: 1. A residential room unit charge. 2. A commercial unit charge. 3. Possibly a levied tax on all undeveloped property.

Since the city council must approve the new rate structure, Robinson will report to them on May 22, one day after the referendum was originally set. The city has set May 28 as the tentative date for the straw vote.

Asked about why the $49,000 operational costs were omitted from the original structure, Robinson said, "Perhaps you could say that Hodge and I goofed."

Hodge reportedly was the first to overlook the operating costs, but Robinson discovered the omission when he rechecked the figures.

He said a $5 room unit charge would net the city approximately $120,000 which was supposed to be one and one half times the amount required to pay off the $1.8 million and operate the plant.

The additional $1 trash and garbage rate will not be increased.

Swimming Pool Bids Are Opened Wednesday Here Roemer And Carter Low

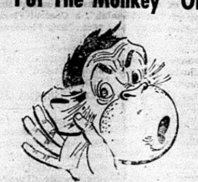

Bids for the two swimming pools and bath houses were opened May 15 at a special meeting of the city council. Bids were referred to the city manager, city attorney and engineer for study and recommendations.

Roemer Construction Co. was apparent low bidder on both bath houses with $63,852 for two. Carter Construction Co. Fort Lauderdale, was apparent low bidder on both pools with $112,511 for two.

City Manager Clarence Robinson said he expects to meet with the attorney and engineer today.

Others submitting bids: Hugh F. Palmer, Hollywood, F. M. Rule, Fort Lauderdale; C. F. Curtis Pools, Inc., Clearwater; Logan Construction Co., Tampa; Hunter-Drew Company, West Palm Beach; Shinn Construction Co., North Miami.

Who "Put The Monkey" On Us?

THE HERALD believes that Belle Glade must have a sewerage disposal system!

We believe facts and figures are obtainable to justify the issuance of bonds to secure money for this purpose. Just how far we can go at present must depend on costs and our ability to pay!

We are now and have been anxious to give the public the facts so that it may determine just what it wishes to do.

The information we gave you last week was obtained from the city and given with the feeling that it was "from the hoss's mouth."

The "hoss" talked before he was fully informed — so the monkey's on our backs.

Somehow, someday, the full information will have been gathered and we'll try again to give you the "dope."

The latest announcement is that city officials will go to Daytona in an attempt to pry from the engineers and the fiscal agent information that should have been public a long time ago.

We're in favor of a trip to Daytona, even if there's not a beauty contest there, IF MORE INTELLIGENT FACTS, FIGURES AND PLANS MAY BE GATHERED.

Rain Has Nearly Finished Harvest

The rain has just about finished the bean harvest while some supplies of celery and corn are expected to be harvested althought insects and blight continues to be a serious problem for growers.

Fred Tuttle, Federal-State Market News Service manager here, said growers and buyers have told him, "We just don't know what will happen." The market is; however, fading on corn prices.

Most Boston and Iceberg lettuce was washed out while only celery and radishes appeared this week in moderate supply. All others were lighter.

Radishes were decreasing in demand but celery and corn was in good demand. Other items were light in demand.

Prices on items were either moderate or low this week except for some corn. Average daily truck and rail carlot movement was 125.

Commercial Agent R. E. Hotard at Florida East Coast Railways here said some items were planted for harvest during mid June if the rain doesn't get it, Carlot movement this week was 638 cars under last year's corresponding period. This year's movement is 3,498 cars behind last year, Hotard said.

Bids On County Projects Opened

Three Palm Beach County road and bridge projects were to be part of one of the largest highway lettings in the history of the state — a letting to be held at Jacksonville May 16.

Included in bids to be opened by the State Road Department are 2.7 miles of construction of Muck City Road in the Glades; rebuilding of Royal Park Bridge between the Palm Beaches and improvement of State Road A1A in Palm Beach.

The Royal Park Bridge project has drawn opposition from the City of West Palm Beach where commissioners object to plans which they say do not make adequate provisions for traffic flow at the approach to the bridge.

However, the county commission Monday voted to advise the State Road Department that plans for the project which have been under study for several years, meet the approval of the county and that steps be taken to get the project underway without further delay.

In connection with other phases of the county's road and bridge program, the board learned this week from Commissioner Paul Rardin that State Road 15 between Pahokee and Belle Glade does not now meet requirements of the state road code for classification as part of the state's primary road system.

CHURCHES OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

Humanity's need for spiritual growth and progress will be brought out at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Mortals and Immortals" is the Golden Text from I Corinthians (15:53): "This corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality."

Readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (265:5): "Mortals must gravitate Godward, their affections and aims grow spiritual, — they must near the border interpretations of being, and gain some proper sense of the infinite, — in order that sin and mortality may be put off."

Scriptural selections to be read include the following from Psalms (89:15): "Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound: they shall walk, O Lord, in the light of thy countenance."

THE WORLD'S MOST WIDELY USED DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

Read Isaiah 52:7-10.

I am poured out like water. (Psalm 22:14.)

No amount of words can ever do justice to the full meaning of the cross; we can only approach Jesus' suffering upon it in awesome wonder. Perhaps most obvious is the striking contrast of what His cross means to us and what it meant to those who crucified Him. They poured out His life like water, but He poured out His soul in death for man's redemption.

God gave His only begotten Son for the "whosoever" — for the swindler, the thief, even the murderer. Any of us can have everlasting life for the asking, if only we will believe on Christ; believe that He bore our sins, that He was wounded for our transgressions, that He was bruised for our iniquities. Because Jesus made His soul an offering for the sins of the whole world, we can become healed by His stripes.

Behold, what manner of love God has bestowed upon us! Jesus was bruised for our sakes, for us who have all turned to our own way and so grievously sinned. But by believing in Christ, we become sons of God, and have intercession made for us.

PRAYER

O God of love and mercy, we have no adequate means to acknowledge Thy wondrous gift to us in the sacrifice of Thine only begotten Son. Help us to take up our cross and follow Him. In His name we pray. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

The way of the cross is our way to God.

Episcopal Vicar To Broadcast Over WSWN

"The Management Of Our Inner Life" will be the theme of the daily broadcasts next week over WSWN at 10:45 a. m. by Father John Clarence Petrie, vicar of the Episcopal churches at Belle Glade and Clewiston.

Those who wish to turn from a bad life to a good one, those who wish to turn from luke-lukewarm religion to fervor, those who wish to rise from good to better, will profit by these talks which are strictly non-denominational in character and intended to help all who listen in.

THE CHURCH OF CHRIST ASKS . . . .

WHAT NAME SHOULD THE CHURCH WEAR?

If God thought there was nothing in a name, why did He name the church in the New Testament?

The church should wear a Bible name if we want to do God's will. The church in the Bible is called by several names: "churches of Christ" Rom. 16:16, "church of the first born" Heb. 12:23, "the church" Eph. 3:10, "the church of God" I Co. 1:2, I Thes. 2:14, "the church of the Lord" Acts 20:28 R.V., "the body, the church" Col. 1:18, "the body of Christ" I Co. 12:27.

If the church wears any other name than that given in the New Testament, then it has gone outside the Bible and is SINNING! II John 1:9.

Since God has named the church why should we think we have a right to give the church a human name! By giving it a human name, we make it a HUMAN ORGANIZATION not belonging to God!

Christ bought the church. (Acts 20:28 R.V.) He built the church. (Matt. 16:18, Acts 2:1-47) He called the church he built HIS! (Matt. 16:18) He is MARRIED to the church! (Rom. 7:4, II Co. 11:2). The church is the BRIDE of Christ. (Rev. 22:17). Therefore the church should wear the name of its HUSBAND—CHRIST . . . THE CHURCH OF CHRIST.

If the church of which you are a member does not wear a Bible name — IT IS WRONG.

Winning Essay

(Editor's note: The following essay written by Constance Pursley, Belle Glade High School senior, won her a $25 savings bond when it was judged in the WSWN National Radio Week Contest May 10.)

WHAT RADIO MEANS TO ME

The radio is a very important object in my life. It seems to shed a light on every day to make it brighter in every way. People of the world today do not realize the real importance of the radio. The main reason for this feeling of unconcern is that most of the people today have always had the luxury of enjoying the radio. They consider it a bare essential because they have never been without it.

When I have the opportunity to listen to the radio, I make the very best of it. I listen to the radio mainly for the purpose of entertainment. I can enjoy a musical program on the radio without its distracting my attention from what I might be doing at the time. It gives me a feeling of relaxation and I feel more confident of myself. I enjoy quiz programs, panel discussions, and news reports, also.

Entertainment is only the minor part radio plays in the world today. The real importance of the radio in the modern world is communicaiton. We do not have to wait weeks or days to know what is going on in other parts of the world because we have the wonderful opportunity to take advantage of the services of radio. Whether an event is taking place in my home town or thousands of miles away, it takes only minutes to relay the message to me.

Radio has saved millions of lives through the years it has been in existence. Before the radio was invented, a storm could take a town by surprise and kill hundreds of people instantly. Today, when a storm is about to approach, people are warned in ample time to make preparations for their safety. News of attacks by other countries are made, and people have a much better chance of survival. In time of war we are kept informed of the political position of our country. We know when our country is in danger of being destroyed or when it has achieved a great victory. Radio, especially in time of war, is one of the most helpful instruments of protection we have.

This is what the radio means to me. It is a true example of the democratic government we have in the United States and of our wonderful Constitution. It emplifies "freedom of religion, freedom of thought, freedom of press, and freedom of speech . . . ."

No Surplus Labor In Glades FSES, Manager

There has been no labor surplus during the season in the Glades despite the fact that carlot equivalents of vegetable shipments are reported to be some six thousand behind last year, according to Lee L. Smith, employment service manager here.

Increased rainfall has lowered crop yields and quality; however, a moderate harvest has been forecast for this month and then it will gradually taper off to zero on or about June 15, Smith said.

As crews of workers become surplus in this area, they are being cleared into other areas of north Florida. Growers in that area are beginning to feel the pinch for qualified farm labor.

Only a few crews have been released from the Glades area and all crews leaders are cautioned to check with the farm labor division personnel before leaving the Glades in order to obtain certified papers and other documents necessary for them to travel through North and South Carolina.

Non-agricultural employment during the month of April was the second highest in the history of this office's operation and there is currently a good supply of non-farm jobs for stenographers, truck and farm mechanics and dragline operators available through the Belle Glade office.

Gibberellic Acid Tests Will Begin

The University of Florida Agricultural Experiment Station has accepted a grant from Merck & Co., Inc., Rahway, N. J., to conduct experiments on th application and effect of gibberellic acid in growing vegetable crops. Merck is marketing the potassium salt of gibberellic acid under the trade name 'Gibrel'.

Limited experiments with gibberellic acid have been conducted at the Everglades Experiment Station according to Dr. Emil Wolf, staff horticulturist.

Wolf said trials had been made with regard to celery seeding here; however, the major portion of the experiments would be made at Gainesville.

University horticultural scientists plans a comprehensive program to determine the proper concentration of the chemical, the number of sprays required by various crop plants and the timing of these sprays.

They will also test the effect of treating seed with gibberellic acid and its practical value in preventing transplanting shock.

Crop plants which are scheduled to be treated for study include tomatoes, snapbeans, sweet potatoes, peppers, watermelon, corn, eggplant and cucumbers.

Oppose Additional Vehicle Taxation

A number of organizations in the state as well as local automobile dealers have voiced strong objection to any increase in sales taxes on vehicles as proposed by Governor LeRoy Collins as well as various legislators.

One of the state sales tax bills was killed last week; however, there are three more at the present time which have been introduced.

The Florida Automobile Dealers Association has sent a letter to its membership urging continued effort to defeat the bills at grass roots level.

The letter points out that although the car is considered a necessity, it is taxed more than anything else a person can own.

Approximately one third of the most of a motor vehicle represents taxes levied on it before it arrives in the state of Florida. Motor vehicle taxes now levied in the state are over $133 million — more than 40% of Florida's state tax.

The FADA points out that the average motorist pays about $113.74 annually in state and federal taxes and fees.

The automobile association has suggested that individuals write to their state representatives urging that they defeat additional tax bills on motor vehicles.

The Florida Conference of AAA Motor Clubs charged this week that the governor has asked the legislature and county school boards to load at least one third of the cost of his $106 million "school package deal" directly on motorists.

The governor's proposal to increase auto license plate charges was described by Marvin L. Holloway, manager of the Tampa Motor Club and AAA legislative chairman, as "probably the most unjust, most discriminatory and most unreasonable tax proposal ever made in Florida — and there have been some lulus in the past."

He went on to say that "For a state whose total economy is almost wholly dependent on motor vehicles and roads, we are clearly coming mighty close to draining all the life out of 'the goose that lays the golden egg'."

"It simply means," Holloway points out, "that every Florida car owner will not only pay all the same taxes that all citizens pay — as they should — but in addition, the car owner would pay at least one-third more than the general tax rate."

By Jack McCaskill

After making a few noises like an improved ball club, the Belle Glade Rams fell apart at the seams in a non-conference tilt here May 7 with St. Ann's of West Palm Beach.

St. Ann's, an under-rated team, played fine defensive ball in the clutches and held the Rams to three runs on eight solid hits. On the other hand, the Rams shoddy fielding and faulty base-running presented the visitors with six runs, all of the unearned variety.

Dan Jones started on the mound for the Rams and lasted only two inning. While there he issued two hits and four bases on balls and received poor support from his mates.

Ronnie Hudspeth pitched the final five and turned in an excellent job. He gave up only two hits and walked none. Errors by Jones, Challancin, Lutz and Able cost Hudspeth three unearned runs.

Challancin and Crant both got two for three to lead their team at bat.

FUTURE CITIZENS RUN CITY — This group of Belle Glade High School students "took over" the city last week for one day. The program was under the supervision of the social studies department through the co-operation of the city officials. (1st row) Police Chief Charles Goodlett and City Manager Clarence Robinson pose with their understudies. Others (2nd row) are: Linda Close, tax collector; Jane Betts, city treasurer; Carline Blalock, park superintendent; Karen Vadasz, tax assessor; Pat Scheffler, city attorney; Connie Pursley, city clerk; Neal Livingston, golf course superintendent; Dwaine Keller, water superintendent. 3rd row) Charles Royal, city manager; Charles Schoenfeld, commissioner; Jim Challancin, sanitary inspector; Morgan Tyson, street inspector; Kenneth Sands, mayor-commissioner; Marilyn Matthews, commissioner; Dick Dupere commissioner; Billy Tom Forsee, judge.

Students Take Over City Government

Through the cooperation of City Manager Clarence Robinson students from the social studies classes at Belle Glade High School were appointed to city offices for one day — May 8 — and showed the older generation that they'll be ready for their civic duties when the time comes.

Robinson said, "I think it's a very wonderful thing for students."

It was, too. Aside from the fact that they "sat in" with their counterparts all day, they provided comic relief as well as serious thought at the last city council meeting.

Did they pass an ordinance. Did they ever! The ordanince is to be in force next year when the students take over and will apply to personnel replaced on the student day. Some of the provisions are . . . well, we hope they're enforced.

The first section calls for the mayor to wear striped trousers and Prince Albert coat, stiff bosomed shirts, high collars and high topper hat which is, in keeping with the dignity of the office.

The Chief of Police shall wear a uniform at all times, said uniform to be comparable to a General of the Army (or in case of rain, comparable to an Admiral.)

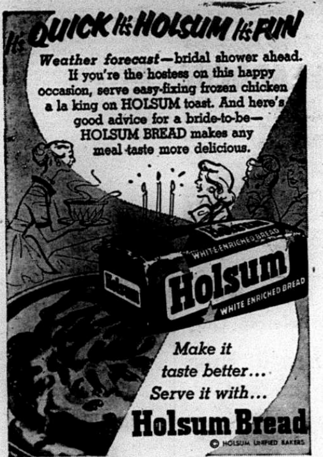

The Water Department Superintendent shall dress with diginty and appear to be the paragon of cleanliness in order that no doubts will be cast as to the purity of the water.

The penalty for violation of any of the sections of the (mad) ordinance shall be $25 fine or ten days on the streets or both. A complete copy of the ordinance appears on the city hall bulletin board.

Acting City Manager Charles Royal told the commission that he wanted E. Lake Road properly paved to the city limits. "You can loose a tire and axle in some of those holes," he said. If he gets that through, it'll be more than the regular gentlemen can do.

DAVIS-WHITE FEUD

Kelley ordered trial postponed from May 10 until the 24th in order that an investigation might be made. Meanwhile White has sworn out a warrant for assault against Davis before Peace Justice J. R. Cherry. The warrant was not served. White then visited County Solicitor Charles Nugent complaining that the warrant should be served.

Nugent was questioning witnesses this week and plans to release a statement when he concludes. Mayor Kelley conferred with Nugent who told the mayor that he might use sworn statements received at the court house in the process of the mayor's investigation of the case.

Mayor Kelley told The Herald, "I always investigate. It may be that he wasn't interferring." Chief Davis stated Thursday that this was the first such incident that the mayor had ever investigated.

White claims he was never arrested. "I haven't committed an act. I was never told I was under arrest," he said.

It was learned that White publically protested Davis' actions in the past. White has objected to the practice of Davis' stopping vehicles on U. S. 27.

The Herald asked Mayor Kelley why he questioned Davis' decision to arrest White and whether he made a practice of postponing cases of this nature. Kelley replied, "I have no comment on that."

While the parties involved readily answered questions concerning the case, there was hesitancy on each's part to clarify the situation. Whatever the political overtones are, they should be known following the judge's decision next Friday.

BELLE GLADE WAS ALMOST NAMED "BADGER"

Part One
When Mail Came From Torrey Island

And who, you may ask, was Badger? It might be well to know, since our city might have borne his name. Of course, he was one of our first settlers and financier of the first ice plant, but he is chiefly to be remembered for his connection with our often moved, and nearly lost, postoffice.

William H. Badger, tall, lank and moustached, and his across-the-canal neighbor, Bill Clark, were the first who might properly be called permanent settlers on the site of Belle Glade. They arrived in 1916. Badger built a small frame house on the north side of the canal. It still stands, considerably enlarged and crowned by a rusty tin roof, between N. E. 1st and 2nd Streets.

He was a famous rifle shot, and woe to the chicken hawk or cottonmouth which ventured within his range. And there was no lack of varmints for target practice. Wildcats were particularly plentiful, attracted, no doubt, by his small pet dog. One evening, among the piles of elder bushes in his clearing, he discovered no less than five bobcats peering at him from as many heaps of brush. One of the hazards of farming was the droves of wild hogs which rooted up such of the crops as escaped the rabbits and frost. He did not lack for pork. Of alligators, too, there were ample. He once shot a twelve footer in front of his cabin, skinned it, cut out the tenderloin, hopped a night freight boat to Miami, and had his wife cook it. His daughter's sweetheart thought the meat delicious — until told what it way. Then he lost his supper.

But let's get back to the postoffice, which, itself, is quite a story — a postoffice which we almost lost, partly, forsooth, because, of all the settlements in the Everglades, ours was the only one without a name.

It all began back in 1916 on the wooded shores of Torrey Island. On the bank of a creek which wound through the swamp on the south end of the island, Emmett McLaughlin had his fish camp. When settlers drifted onto the islands and the newly exposed lake bottom between Hillsboro Canal and South Bay, Howard Stowe erected a store across from the fish camp and on March 31, 1917, succeeded in getting a postoffice. However, the continued lowering of the lake soon prevented access by supply boats, so, armed with a permit from the War Department, he dredged up an artificial island, bulkehaded round about, in the open lake at the junction of the channels to the Hillsboro and North New River canals. This was about a half miles from Torrey and somewhat north of tiny Rabbit Island (southeast of the Hurricane Gate). At this location, sometimes referred to as Rabbit Island, otherwise as the Dump, he erected a story-and-half building, moved both store and postoffice, and celebrated by holding a dance, complete with fiddler and jugs of "custard apple dew", on a cold night in the fall of 1917. The postoffice retained the name "Torrey Island". Fred Himmelwright, from down the canal assisted Stowe in store and postoffice. However, Fred, who owned a boardwalk concession in Asbury Park, N. J. became weary of the wilderness life, and the following spring returned north. Badger then assumed the duties of postmaster and recevied his official appointment on July 20th, 1918. Meanwhile Stowe had become sick and sold his store to Ft. Lauderdale Mercantile Co. The new manager was Dewey Hutchins, now in Jacksonville and a brother-in-law to John Pickett and the late Bennett Bell. Records of the Post Office Department reveal that Hutchins was appointed postmaster February 7, 1920 and Badger was again appointed November 8, 1920. Dewey says he remembers taking the examination, but cannot recall the reason, since Badger continued to operate the postoffice during all this period and in fact until his death in 1929.

Activity on the lake shore was now beginning to boom. Besides the Torrey Island store, there were those of J. E. Carter at Canal Point, Maude Wingfield at Ritta and Parkinson at Moore Haven, not to mention J. M. Baker's at Okeelanta, which antedated them all. Most of Dewey's business was transacted twice a week, on the nights when the mail boat arrived. Many of his customers would call for their mail and purchase a month's supplies at the same time. An additional helper was required so young Herbert Giebert was called in from the main store. He improved his idle moments by courting and marrying a girl from Gladecrest, ten miles down the canal.

The postmaster's only remuneration was from postal cancellation, which, in such a frontier outpost might be assumed to be trivial. However, there were many coon and otter skins and gator hides, as well as a considerable number of hampers of vegetables which were shipped by parcel post. Hutchins even operated a branch of the Ft. Lauderdale State Bank in order to cash checks for trappers and farmers.

Your Post Office

(A Column Of Comment and News Of Our Post Office)
By Postmaster George Farnall

It is now three years since the Post Office issued its first regular stamp to bear the motto "In God We Trust" on April 8, 1954.

Actually, this was one of the most significant moves ever undertaken by our Post Office Department.

For the first time, billions of stamps began to affirm this nation's faith in God — one of the things which has made it great.

Washington tells me that this year the Post Office Department will issue about 23 billion postage stamps, and the 3c and 8c (used largely for international mail) stamps bearing the motto "In God We Trust" will be by far the best sellers.

Your local stamp sales at our Post Office incidentally also are large — an indication of the growth and vitality of this community. Our stamp sales are running at the rate of 59,525.26 a year.

One of the most interesting things to come across my desk from Washington in recent days is a study showing how the people of other nations despite their lower average income, pay more to mail a letter than Americans do.

Postmen abroad get about one-fourth as much salary as do American postmen.

In Germany, where postal service covers 96,000 square miles domestically and where an experienced postman makes the equivalent of $1,161 a year, domestic postage is the equivalent of 4.8 cents a letter.

In France, with 212,655 square miles and postmen making the equivalent of $1,149 a year, it is the equivalent of 4.3 cents.

In Switzerlnad — 16,000 square miles, the equivalent of $1,830 and the equivalent of 4.6 cents.

In Sweden — 173,378 square miles, the equivalent of $1,815 and the equivalent of 4.8 cents.

In America, incidentally, your postal service covers more than 3 million square miles in this country alone.

If folks practiced a thing as much as they preached it, we'd all fare a whale of a lot better—and that goes for our road manners.

From our EARLY FILES

One Year Ago

A total of 31,654 migratory farm workers signed for work in Atlantic seaboard states. More than half of that number were recruited from four places, Belle Glade, Pompano, Fort Pierce and Homestead. Over 6,500 signed in the Glades.

Pahokee harbor and break-water will be formerly dedicated May 19-20. The $200,000 project will be the first harbor located directly on the lake.

To those who feel that "cattle are replacing the vegetable deal in the Glades," it may be some sort of comfort to know that last week the Glades moved as many "units" — meaning packages — of vegetables in carlots as did the entire balance of the state. (700,000 packages).

City Bulding Inspector N. B. Willis announced that the record of building permits for home construction during the four months of this year greatly exceeded the corresponding period of the preceeding two years.

Rainfall Over Lake Nearly Double Now

Rainfall over Lake Okeechobee during the last four months has been almost twice the normal amount and the lake has risen to a stage of 13.5 feet above mean sea level as measured on May 7.

This fact was announced this week by Colonel E. E. Kirkpatrick, district engineer for the Jacksonville District, U. S. Army Corps of Engineers. The report is also verified by the Division of Planning and Research, Central and Southern Florida Flood Control District at West Palm Beach.

Last summer Lake Okeechobee was at elevation 10.2 feet which was the lowest stage ever recorded and the area was threatened with the possibility of a serious water shortage. This year the problem is to dispose of the excess water.

Kirkpatrick said that in order to maintain the lake at the desirable stage of about 13 feet during the hurricane season, it will be necessary to make releases of about 3,000 cubic feet per second during the next month.

It is contemplated that hurricane gate number four and five will be regulated so that the agricultural canals can remove the excess water which will flow by gravity to the conservation areas.

There is considerable water in the conservation areas at the present time. Pumping stations S-5A, S-39 and S-34 will be used to maintain desirable stages. Only small amounts of water would be released through the other outlets.
